- 2.2 Employee – The term “employee” as used in this Agreement shall mean any person employed in a classification included within the bargaining unit set forth in Article 2.1. It shall further include any person employed in any new job or classification created in the future which parties agree is to be included within the bargaining unit.

2.3 When the Company creates a new classification within the bargaining unit, the Company shall provide the Union with the following information in writing prior to the posting for the new classification:

- (a) Proposed job title
- (b) Proposed pay group
- (c) Proposed general description of the duties and responsibilities

The Union shall advise the Company, within five (5) working days of receiving the information, of any disagreement with the pay level of the new classification. Postings for new classifications will indicate that the job is a “newly created bargaining unit classification”.

ARTICLE 3 – Jurisdiction

3.1 The Company agrees not to assign relating but not limited to the preparation, administration, audition, rehearsal and/or broadcast of the Company’s television programs and overall operation, including the operation of technical equipment, to other than employees in the bargaining unit if such work assignment directly avoids the hiring of a full-time employee in the bargaining unit, directly results in a layoff, or avoids a recall from layoff of a full-time employee. It is agreed that the Company’s obligations under this Article shall only apply with respect to work on television programs or productions produced exclusively by and for the Company at the Company’s premises.

3.2 Notwithstanding Article 3.1, nothing precludes the Company from transferring a function or functions. An employee who has completed his/her probationary period and who becomes laid off as a result of any such transfers shall be entitled to:

- (a) Be provided with two (2) months’ notice or pay in lieu thereof, and:
- (b) Be paid severance pay based on three (3) weeks’ pay for each full year of service A portion of a year shall be calculated on a pro rata basis.

The combination of b) and c) to a maximum of sixty-four (64) weeks of regular pay. The above noted severance shall be deemed to include any severance required pursuant to any statute.

3.3 “On-Air” Employees

- (a) The parties recognize that broadcasting requires the continued maintenance of high standards of performance, creativity, and marketability (image) which, with respect to the “On-Air” Employees, are not capable of definition in solely objective terms. The Parties also agree and understand that “On-Air” employees (program segment hosts, reporters and Video Journalists) are an integral part of the image and character of a television station and as such have special responsibilities that go beyond those of other bargaining unit employees. These include but are not limited to being highly acceptable to the viewing audience, appearing in public on the station’s behalf, being involved in the community and representing one’s self professionally, with dignity, at all times including outside of work hours.

The Company will provide direction and assistance to such employees to assist the employee in achieving necessary standards or performance, creativity and marketability and/or to consistently fulfill his/her special responsibilities. The parties therefore agree that the Company reserves the right to remove from his/her role such as an employee who, in its opinion fails to achieve such high standards of performance, creativity or marketability or has not met reasonable Company expectations regarding special responsibilities. Such right shall not be exercised in an arbitrary or discriminatory manner and not sooner than thirty (30) days after an employee has been advised by written notice (which notice shall describe in reasonable detail the manner in which such employee has fallen short of such standards of performance, creativity, and/or marketability and/or has not reasonably met Company expectations regarding special responsibilities).

The right to remove an employee from his/her role shall not be used as a disciplinary measure and shall be in addition to and not in substitution for, the Company’s right to apply discipline, which may only be exercised for just cause.

Due to the uniqueness of the conditions of employment for “On-Air” employees, extraordinary compensation arrangements may be necessary. It is therefore agreed that the Company may enter into special, fixed length contracts with “On-Air” staff individually to cover rates of pay, hours of work, severance, etc., providing that such terms as a package, are not inferior to the terms (as a package) contained in the Collective Agreement.

If the Collective Agreement and the personal service contract conflict, the Collective Agreement shall apply. However, where the personal employment contract exceeds the terms of the agreement or sets terms and conditions of employment where the collective agreement is silent, the employment contract shall apply. In recognition of the Union’s status as exclusive bargaining agent, the union will represent employees within the bargaining unit, at an employee’s option, in the negotiations of On-Air employee contracts. A copy of the contract will be provided to the union within fourteen (14) days.

Such contracts may contain a non-compete clause within Edmonton broadcast area.

- (b) An Employee removed from his/her classification under this Article shall receive a lump sum severance payment commensurate with his/her service as of the date the removal takes place as follows”

Post probation to three (3) completed years or service – three (3) months' severance pay;

More than three (3) years' service, four (4) weeks of pay for each year of service with pro-rata credit for any part year of service (calculated to the nearest month) to a maximum of fifty-two (52) weeks of severance pay;

Such severance pay shall include and be in lieu of any notice or severance pay obligations established by the Canada Labour Code and any other applicable statute or legal requirement;
