Participating Withdrawal Cards

How to apply

1. Complete and sign the application for Participating Withdrawal found on the Local's website.
2. Return the signed application with post-dated cheques to the Business Office, or send payment by e-transfer to accounting@ibew2228.ca. The post-dated cheques or e-transfer payments must cover the full period of the absence and be for your full working dues. (Please contact the Business Office to confirm the amount of dues to be paid.)
3. Once the Business Office receives your application and confirms that the required dues have been paid, your application will be reviewed by the Executive Board.
4. You will be notified of their decision as soon as possible.

Your rights and obligations under Participating Withdrawal

Members under participating withdrawal remain subject to the IBEW Constitution and the Local Union by-laws. The Participating Withdrawal Card does not entitle the holder to participate in the affairs of the Local or attend Local Union meetings. However, members under participating withdrawal maintain their seniority in the bargaining unit and may continue their membership in the Local's Group Life Insurance program.
